Harris has been granted the power to vote shares in circumstances it determines to be appropriate in connection with assisting its advised clients to whom it renders financial advice in the ordinary course of its business, by either providing information or advice to the persons having such power, or by exercising the power to vote when it determines such action appropriate in connection with matters which are submitted to a security holder's vote.

In addition, Harris serves as investment adviser to Harris Associates Investment Trust (the "Trust"), and various of Harris' officers and directors are also officers and trustees of the Trust. Harris does not consider that the Trust is controlled by such persons. The Trust, through its various series, beneficially owns 1,575,200 Shares, which are included as Shares over which Harris has shared voting and dispositive power, and thus, as Shares beneficially owned by Harris because of Harris' power to manage the Trust's investment. In addition, Harris serves as investment adviser to a small number of other clients who may own Shares, but for which Harris does not have discretionary authority. Nevertheless, the Shares are included in the aggregate number of Shares over which Harris has shared voting and shared dispositive power reported herein, although Harris may not be deemed the beneficial owner (as defined in Rule 13d-3) of such shares.
