Rationale for SPX and Echlin Merger

- . Vehicle service industry is rapidly evolving
- . Combination benefits shareholders, customers and employees of  $\mathsf{SPX}$  and  $\mathsf{Echlin}$
- . SPX's leadership experience and management techniques will be applied to Echlin
- SPX will cut costs, improve profitability and position combined company for growth

"Win-Win" Combination for all Constituencies

Summary of SPX's Offer

. Structure: Exchange offer for all Echlin shares

. Value: $48 per Echlin share or approximately $3 billion (on February 17, 1998)

. Terms: $12 in cash, 0.4796 SPX shares per Echlin share;

1/4 cash, 3/4 stock; fixed exchange ratio

. Premium: 23% over Echlin's close on 2/17/98; 32% above prior

30-day average

. Earnings: Expect substantial accretion in first full year

Compelling Combination for Shareholders of Echlin & SPX

Why This Offer Now?

- . SPX had been pursuing a strategic business combination with Echlin for a year
- . SPX had initiated three meetings with Echlin and had sent several letters regarding proposed deal
- . Echlin had repeatedly rebuffed our offer to negotiate a transaction -- Echlin Board still refuses to meet with us
- Rapid industry consolidation and strategic rationale for transaction make it necessary to take our offer directly to Echlin's shareholders

Outstanding Value Creation Opportunity... Attempted Negotiated Deal for Over a Year

Status of our Offer

- . SPX owns 1.15 million Echlin shares, 1.8% of Echlin, and more than combined ownership of Echlin's officers and directors
- . SPX has received antitrust clearance for the transaction
- . SPX has received "highly confident" letter for $2.4 billion of financing from CIBC
- SPX has sent a merger agreement to Echlin and filed related exchange offer materials with SEC
- . SPX's demand solicitation materials to call special meeting of Echlin's shareholders cleared SEC review on March 6
- . SPX now seeking 35% vote to call special meeting
- . Echlin seeking legislative protection in Connecticut
