Ranks #43 on Annual List of America's Best Companies

CHARLOTTE, NC - May 13, 2008 - SPX Corporation (NYSE: SPW) today announced that it has been named to the Barron's 500, the financial magazine's annual list of "America's Best Companies" for 2008.

The Barron's 500 ranks the largest (by sales) publicly traded companies in the United States and Canada with the best record of boosting their sales and cash flow. SPX ranked #43 overall, earning a cumulative grade-point average of 3.25 out of a possible 4.0. The Barron's 500 rankings, including detailed information about the methodology, can be found in the May 12 issue of Barron's and at www.barrons.com.

"The fact that SPX ranked among the top 50 companies in this year's Barron's 500 is extremely gratifying, and points to the significant growth and positive momentum we have achieved over the past year," said Chris Kearney, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of SPX. "The foundation for SPX's success has been the commitment to excellence our employees demonstrate each day, and it is their hard work and dedication that will continue to drive SPX in the years ahead."
